House of Parliament, Hungary

The House of Parliament, home to the National Assembly, is deservedly considered one of the most stunning such buildings of the world. The city's iconic building, which has been a World Heritage Site since 2011 together with the Banks of the Danube, the Buda Castle Quarter and Andrassy Avenue, is an invaluable part of our national treasure and the pride of the Hungarian nation. The House of Parliament is home to Hungary's legislative body and the Holy Crown, as well as serving as the workplace of 199 MPs and their support staff of 741 people.
